

OUR JUDGES THIS SPRING

JOSEPH SCHRIMPF, Germantown, WI -- Introduced to ED in 1993, I was struck by the intensity and drive of these special companions. I have handled 3 dogs through Master. With the help of small dedicated group, I have been part of AKC tests in Florida. Probably best known for detailed liner designs, my family and border terriers now live in Wisconsin.

SUSAN THURLOW, Nisswa, MN -- Earthdog trials have been a source of joy for me and my dogs (husband, Tom, too) since we found our first Lakeland terrier in 2001. I teach at Brainerd High School in north central Minnesota. We have enjoyed going to ED tests across the country because of the friends we have made.

LARRY VOLLER, Omaha, NE -- I have been involved in earthdog since the mid '90s. Several of my wire fox terriers have earned titles through Master. We are working hard to establish earthdog in the Omaha area through a terrier group club.

PAM GILES, Des Moines, IA -- A Central Iowa club member and earthdog and field trial judge. I have shown my miniature smooth dachshunds to Master titles and many titles in obedience, agility and the field. "The thing I like best about earthdog is that it's a non-competitive sport. Everyone is more relaxed and supportive of each other, and this is something the dogs truly enjoy doing. What better way to spend a weekend!"

LINDA SULLIVAN, Bellevue, NE -- A long-time earthdog and field trial judge, Linda is owned by a big black standard longhair dachshund. She is a CIDC and Dachshund Club of America member.
